THE ROAD TO FINANCIAL AID

from Denver are to the effect that at least $3,000,000 will be raised in New York for the purpose of assuring the early work on the tunneling of the road, thereby constructing the most important links of the road between Salt Lake and the coast, the short line between the two cities. The optimism of Denver residents and prominent business men is due to the visit to the Colorado capital of Frederick J. Lishman of the company of financiers who has his name. After a trip in over that portion of the road built and a visit to the points in the Intermountain, Mr. Lishman was the corner Z. Read and other capitalists. A New York banker is quoted as saying that the road is the belated platform committee had finally rendered its copious report and it had been adopted. Hugo Anderson, a lawyer from Salt Lake, placed Dr. Joseph F. Merrill in nomination for governor. SHOOTING SCRAPE AT MOUNTAIN HOME

Tuesday about five o'clock in the afternoon occurred a very sad shooting affair several miles north of Mt. Home. Eugene Sorenson shot and seriously wounded Elra Potter. Sorenson was under the influence of liquor and shot with but little provocation as there was absolutely nothing between the two men. A number of people are working on reservoirs about the sawmill on Upper Lakefork. Tuesday a crowd came over from Park City bringing the usual "good cheer" with them. Sorenson is said to be a very pleasant and peaceful fellow when sober but just the opposite when drunk. After a few passes of the jug Sorenson tried to drive his team. A friend of twelve years standing, in fact a real chum to him, got on the wagon and asked him if he hadn't better drive. This made Sorenson mad and

INDIAN FAIR BEGINS SEPTEMBER 12TH.

On September 12th will begin the three days' Indian fair at Ft. Duchesne. This is a new thing in the Uintah basin and will doubtless attract large crowds. Mr. Albert H. Kneale, the Indian agent, is always awake to opportunities to do good for the Indians under his charge. This event will no doubt do much to encourage the Indian to help himself. It will give him a chance to show what he can do. The white people that attend will do all they can to show appreciation of their efforts. There will be plenty of sports, horse racing and such. The Indians of the basin have some of the finest horses in the state. R. T. Bonnin who has direct charge of the fair, says that the Indians are going to reproduce some of the old time Indian games. Both

THE BASIN IS PROGRESSING

Commercially the Uintah basin is prospering as it never has before. A building boom has struck all the towns. Duchesne is building without exaggeration a score of new buildings. New substantial structures are going up in Roosevelt. Vernal is building also. One has only to look around to see the new buildings which are going up. Even Myton, which now must go through a period of adjusting itself to new conditions is building some. This growth is solid and gives promise of being not spasmodic but of continuing on and on. Let us hope so. Crops are better than they have been for some time. Our recent temporary water shortage is fast

PRESTON NUTTER, CATTLE
KING, SOLD $16.00 WORTH
STEERS UNDER 3 YEARS

The report in the Free Press
recently that Preston Nutter,
the cattle king of Northeastern Utah, had sold his steers for around $40 per head was incorrect, according to later information from a very reliable source.

The news that came to Myton from Nine Mile last week was that Mr. Nutter sold at one time 1,400 steers which averaged $73.50 per head. Another shipment of 700 head is soon to be made at the same price.

The man who brought this news from Nine Mile says no
cows were included and no
steers under three years of age.
If that is true it would be interesting to know just how many cattle Preston Nutter owns or did before this big sale.

The purchaser was M. K. Parsons, at the head of the Keystone Cattle company, of Meeker, Colorado. Mr. Parsons, when

MORE RECOGNITION FOR WILD AND WOOLY WEST

Result of the Recent Election Will Prove of Benefit to Utah and Numerous Other Internoun-
tain States

As a result of the recent election, the west will be recognized as never before in the distribution of patronage. This is learned from administration sources of the highest and most unimpeachable authority.

Two predictions which, it is said,
will be borne out fully by the developments of the next year are these:
1. That the west will receive unprecedented recognition by appointments in the cabinet and on the large important commissions and other bodies which congress has created.

2. That special recognition will be extended in the matter of patronage
and other favors to the Progressives, former Progressives and independents who supported President Wilson

WOOLEN GOODS GO UP WITH OTHER THINGS

Five Dollar Sweaters Are Soon to Be Sold For Eight Dollars
—Knitting Mills Seize
Notice

Future orders for goods containing wool will be subject to an increase of 60 per cent. Such is the declaration made by the Salt Lake knitting factory.

The move is taken after long consideration. It is said, and after sitting patiently by for the past several months watching the soaring price of the raw material.

This may or may not affect the holiday price of woolen goods. It depends upon the retailers. It, as in the case in a good many instances, the dealers already have filled their orders or have a full stock of the material now on hand, the retail price may not be affected.

The new price list will pertain to all new orders. A $5 sweater will increase to $8. All articles of wool will be affected.

Wm. COLEMAN REPORTED
TO HAVE SOLD SHEEP
FOR $16.00 PER HEAD

A report has reached Myton that William Coleman recently sold his sheep for $16 per head.
Another report came that he sold his herd, about 5,000 and all the range, outfit, etc., for $125,000.

With wool selling around 30 cents per pound and lambs at seven cents to eight cents per pound, the purchaser will make his money back in a very short time. If the price was $16 per head it was the record breaker.
The highest price in this part of the country prior to that was paid by Wm. H. Smart, when he bought a herd for $12.50 per head.

The record price for washed wool in Boston was $1 per pound. The price heretofore was 70 cents.

Wool buyers are already coming into Utah to contract for next spring. The basin wool next spring will bring around

Three Divorces

Three marriage licenses issued and three divorce actions filed in the record at the county clerks office this week.

Marriage licenses were issued by clerk Ashton to the following, Elizabeth Hughes, and William Murray; Martha Winward and John Hair, Jr., Lillian Hair and George P. Bigelow.

Miss Hughes and Mr. Murray were married by Justice of the Peace J. S. Murray, at Maeser on March 21st. The last two couples named left this morning for Salt Lake city. They will be married at the Salt Lake temple next Wednesday.

Helen Smith has filed an action against Gilbert Smith for divorce on the ground of failure to provide the common necessities of life.

Lulu Odekirk Brown bases her action for divorce against Ed. Brown on the ground of desertion; and Rosa Tefft is seeking a divorce decree from her husband Jos. L. Tefft on the ground of cruelty causing mental distress. These actions will be heard at the June term of the district court.

visit in Salt Lake City. Miss May remained in the city and is trimming hats for the Vernal trade.

The car load of Ford autos arrived this week. They were lined up from the Uintah State bank to the other side of the livery barn making a very impressive display.

The packing plant proposition is again up for discussion. Judging from the interest being taken by the representative people of the community it is a sure go this time.

Flockmasters at Rock Springs during the past week have been contracting their wool. Sixteen and seventeen cents per pound was the prevailing price, although one man sold for eighteen.

There will be a reduced rate for conference at Salt Lake city April 3, 4 and 5. The round trip over the Uintah and D. & R. G. will be $22.50, leaving Vernal March 30th and 31st.

Arbor day will soon be here. How many are preparing to celebrate this day the way it was intended it should be celebrated? Make up your mind to plant at least one tree on this day.

The Vernal drug company is preparing to move into its new quarters in the Calder building. This week all the clerks that could be spared have been busy getting the new place in order.

Word from Provo received this week states that the "Sun Dance" will be produced by the Brigham Young University music school during coming to public printing, binding and distribution.

The U. S. C. held its monthly social at the home of Mrs. B. D. Nebeker, Tuesday evening. A delicious lunch was served at eight o'clock. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and in other social features.

The Commercial club held an informal reception for Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson Thursday evening upon their return from Salt Lake city. A number of friends in automobiles armed with horns and other implements of noise went out to meet them on the incoming stage from Watson.

It is expected that the commission of Peter Hanson, who has been appointed Register of the land office will arrive some time next week. In the meantime Mr. Hannson is busy getting his affairs in shape so that he can assume the duties of his new office as soon as the commission arrives.

It is surprising what a little dragging will do to the roads, when they are in the right condition to drag. All the ruts and bumps left after the frost goes out of the ground are smoothed down easily and the road soon packs if the dragging is done at the right time.

G. W. Vangundy has leased his bees for the summer and will go to live with his son George who has a homestead near Bluebell. Mr. Vangundy is getting along in years, and as his health has not been good the past year, has decided to try a change for one season at least.

Mrs. J. B. Whittemore left Monday for Joplin, Mo., to visit with relatives for several weeks. Her husband and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Coltharp accompanied her as far as Price.

The Utah county commissioners have been in Salt Lake this week buying new road machinery authorized by the recent bond election. The county bonds voted amount to $140,000.

The mail route from Watson to Vernal will be re-established next fall according to C. L. Davison, representative of the Fourth assistant postmaster general, who was in here recently.

Wilbur Haynes has returned from Idaho. He traveled from Grace, 300 miles, on horseback, in six days. Mr. Haynes has not yet decided where he will locate. He still has his eye on Fruitland.

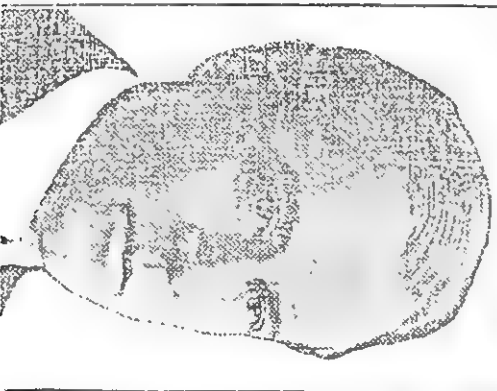

Tom Kelso, of Roosevelt, was in Myton. Since last March Mr. Kelso has been on Colton summit transferring mail. He says the mud is fast drying and that autos should be able to negotiate the summit within three weeks at most.

Miss Esther Dean, who taught the past year at Antelope, spent a short time in Myton this week. Miss Dean will not teach next year. She has decided to become a trained nurse and will take a course at Holy Cross hospital in Salt Lake.

Mrs. I. R. Tuttle, teacher in the Myton school, has gone to Columbia, Mo., to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Polly Carr who is more than 80 years old and who is rapidly declining. Mrs. Tuttle, who will again teach in the Myton school, hopes to be back in time to attend summer school in Salt Lake.

Wallace Dennis and Miss Gladys Stewart were married in Duchesne last Saturday afternoon. On Saturday night a wedding supper was served at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dennis. Only members of the two families and a few intimate friends were present. On Monday night the newly-weds gave their wedding dance. Friday night before the wedding a shower for the bride was given by Mrs. J. H. Guyman. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis will reside for the present in Indian canyon where he has a position with the Raven Mining company. The bride is a daughter of George Stewart and wife.

It appears that the assessed valuation was increased for two reasons: namely, to raise our county to a higher and more expensive class, because same carries higher salaries. Such action would be heartily concurred in if we were all office holders. But as it is only a few of the best of us are called to serve the rest of us.

We just want to observe at this time, when tax payers are groaning and growling under the old load, and with a short school fund and term in sight, to arrange for a more expensive county government seems far from consistent. Moreover, it would be impossible to reach the 8th class valuation without computing a large strip belonging to Uintah county.

GOOD ROADS

If a business man handled his private business in the way we have been running our road business he would go broke inside of a year. It is lucky for us that we can't break the tax-paying public, for no matter how tax we are the money continues to come and the taxpayers continue to pay. Is it not our serious and bounden duty to spend this money wisely and in a scientific and businesslike manner?

In my county we spent $100,000 on our roads and bridges, through our highway commissioners, and as yet I have been unable to find out what it accomplishes each township a year to maintain its wooden bridges and culverts and its steel bridges, or what it costs per mile per year to grade roads or to drag roads. One township did know what it cost to drag roads, viz: $1.35, which was represented the total for the Massachusetts mortgages. And at that time when you get home you find

I remember that upon one occasion a certain Farmer's Union lecturer was telling the farmers of Texas of the mistake they were making. He said, "The greatest mistake with the Texas farmer is that he doesn't live at home; he depends on selling cotton too much. You are continually laying something and you don't sell anything. To illustrate what I mean I need but call attention to the fact that you awake to a Connecticut clock. You get up and button on Chicago suspenders to your Detroit overalls. You go out and wash your face with Cincinnati soap in an Indianapolis basin. You sit down to breakfast and eat from a table made in Grand Rapids, Mich., and you eat Chicago meat. Your bread is made of Tennessee flour and cooked on a St. Louis stove. You go out and put a New York bridle on a Kentucky rule, fed on Iowa corn, plow your farm all day which is covered with Massachusetts mortgages. And at night when you get home you find

The Mormon church has bought $250,000 of the Victory Liberty loan. This makes a total of $1,000,000 of Liberty bonds the Church has bought.

Mrs. C. P. Waterson, who has been in Salt Lake since the first part of March, is expected home soon. Her health is much better than when she went.

James O'Neil, door keeper for the House during the recent session of the legislature, passed through Myton this week enroute to his home in Vernal.

G. H. Moore, of Salt Lake, sold 40 acres located between Lapoint and Fort Duchesne to William Curtis. Mr. Moore then bought 80 acres near Whiterocks.

Claud Curtis, of Roosevelt, is the first soldier we have heard of who got as far out at sea as 500 miles when ordered to turn back towards New York on account of end of war. He left New York harbor with his company, Motor ambulance, on the morning of November 9.

H. C. Moore, Investment company was in Myton a short time during the week. Mr. Johnson says the report that Soldier Summit terminal work is not to be resumed is erroneous. He expects to see much activity up there by the first of May.

L. L. Grapo, of Dove Creek, Colorado, is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. A. Snyder, south of town. From here he expects to go to Dixon, Wyoming to visit with another daughter, Mrs. S. W. Stockton. Mr. and Mrs. Snyder will accompany him. They will make the trip by auto.

It is reported that W. H. Fitzwater, postmaster at Duchesne, has made application for superintendent of the Helper-Vernal mail route. The Free Press will join with many others in protesting against the appointment of Mr. Fitzwater. We do not believe a local man should be appointed to the position.

Mrs. Edward Mackie and children are visiting friends in Virginia and the change of climate is proving very beneficial to Mrs. Mackie's health. She writes her parents Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Walter Hayes arrived here this week from Idaho. On account of deep snow in Strawberry country he was compelled to leave his family, with live stock, machinery and household goods in Daniels canyon. GLASS SLAPS CARPERS AND LOAN CRITICS

Americans Who Join Croakers and Quibblers Not Worthy of Name.

Secretary of the Treasury Carter Glass hit out straight from the shoulder today at those "Americans" who, now that the guns are cooling, are unwilling to pay for American victory. He said:

"The coming issue of government bonds has been designated the victory liberty loan and it seems to me it might well be termed the thanksgiving loan, for if ever a people had cause for thanksgiving we are that people.

Could Stand It.

"Consider if the war had lasted another year what would have been our state. Instead of sixty thousand dead we likely would have had hundreds of thousands. In time we might have equaled the record of France, with her two million slain. And yet some of us grumble because the government must spend further money to maintain the comfort and bring home in safety those boys whose lives were spared.

"Congress is writing off the books fifteen billions of dollars, expenditure of which had been authorized and which would have had to be expended, with billions of other dollars, had the war gone on another year. We all are glad, of course, that it is not necessary to spend these additional billions, but had it been necessary the spending of them still would not have brought the nation down to ruin.

"We still would have been far behind France in the amount of our debt, compared to wealth and population. With our man-power practically intact, with our towns and factories and farms undamaged, should we be cowed by a monetary obli-

U. S. MUST SHOW POWER ONCE AGAIN

Civil War Finance Surprised Europe—Government Had to Pay Premiums.

The experience of the leading world powers indicates that in times of stress and emergency national financial strength has always been greatly underestimated. For this reason, and because of the excessive demand for capital in industrial fields during war time, even the greatest nations are invariably required to give very good bargains in their securities in order to raise money to finance a war. In 1862 the United States Government was in the midst of a great war and was having considerable difficulty in raising the necessary funds.

What They Thought.

During this period the London Economist, an established and substantial periodical, expressed its opinion of our financial future in these words:

"It is utterly out of the question, in our judgment, that the Americans can obtain, either at home or in Europe, anything like the extravagant sums they are asking—for Europe will not lend them; America cannot."

The Times expressed conservative English opinion as follows:

"No pressure that ever threatened is equal to that which now hangs over the United States, and it may safely be said that if in future generations they faithfully meet their liabilities they will fairly earn a fame which will shine throughout the world."

What We Did.

It may be fairly taken for granted that the ideas expressed by these substantial periodicals were supported by the mass of English public opinion; yet, in spite of these weighty and honest opinions to the contrary, we did

—War imposes many sacrifices upon a nation engaged in it, and civilian life necessarily is disturbed. The United States will have to share with other belligerents the inconvenience incident to the conflict. But if anyone is inclined to feel discontented, he should take the trouble to note what has been done by New Zealand since the beginning of hostilities. occasionally entertain friends. Though Ms. Auchincloss labels herself "an awful hostess," she is wise enough to give her guests freedom to roam around the island, discovering its beauty for themselves.

"I let my guests do what they want just turn them loose." The couple suggests summer and fall as the best time to visit Bermuda. "The best thing to do, we find, is to drive around the island leisurely," says Lily, adding that her favorite sight is wherever the dolphins are.

If you're not visiting Douglas and Lily, stay at the Coral Beach Club.

Hardy Amies' England

LONDON is basically not a restaurant city, compared to New York, Paris and Rome," says British designer Hardy Amies. "We still get servants and have a long tradition of home entertaining.

"England is so small you're supposed to know somebody wherever you go. There is, therefore, very little chic dining out in the evening."

The best restaurant in London, however, is Wilton's on Bury St. and St. James', which specializes in simple food of fine quality.
